Volunteer Board Opportunity: Educator

The Manitoba Association for Rights and Liberties (MARL) is a non-profit, non-governmental, human rights and civil liberties organization. Formed in 1978, MARL promotes respect for and observance of human rights and civil liberties. MARL defends, extends, and creates awareness for rights and liberties within the province of Manitoba.

We take action to support:

- Youth empowerment through workshops and mentoring,
- Policy change through advocacy, government briefings, research and publication, and
- Public engagement through public events and community celebrations.

We believe an informed and engaged citizenship are the key to healthy democratic society and that everyone should have opportunity and access to our shared rights.

MARL is currently seeking an enthusiastic individual for a volunteer board position with a background in education. As education is our main goal, we are looking for new volunteers that can bring expertise, expand our network and reach of our operations.

Position duties will include:

- Engage in MARL's strategic planning and board/organizational direction
- Attending mandatory quarterly board meetings
- Makes a commitment to participate in events and initiatives outlined by the education committee and MARL as a whole
- Stays informed about committee matters
- Becoming a formal member of MARL

Ideal candidates will demonstrate the following qualifications:

- Educational background in Peace & Conflict Studies, Politics, International Development Studies, Education, or related field.
- Practical teaching experience
- Curriculum and workshop research and development
- Excellent organizational and communication skills.
- Previous experience in a non-profit environment.

To apply, please forward your resume to Michelle Falk, Executive Director, at ed@marl.mb.ca before February 10, 2017.
